Last week end Carmel Youth Center members sowed wild flower seeds in the Junipero Street center planting strip and at Carmel's city-owned recreation park for senior citizens at Mission Street and First Avenue under the supervision of the Carmel Street Department. The seeds, predominately lupin and California poppy, were provided by Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher, president of the Carmel Citizens Committee.

Citizens Committee Queries Candidates For City Council

The five candidates who seek to gain election to the city council on April 10 received questionnaires from the Carmel Citizens Committee this week.

Expected to send replies were Gunnar Norberg, up for re-election, Herbert B. Blanks, Warren Edwards, Mrs. John Chitwood, and James Buffington, Jr.

The questions were: Should Carmel endeavor to keep out any more "chain stores" and "big business"? To meet the rising costs of government, should other sources of revenue be considered and sought rather than increasing property taxes? Would you favor increasing business license taxes, imposing a room tax or other revenue sources? Should there be some limit on bulk and site of business buildings? Should major roads on the Peninsula be of the scenic or parkway type rather than expressways or freeways? In principle do you favor annexation of all or portions of Carmel Unincorporated?

Eggs To Pinfeathers... Saga Of Six Chicks Told By Second Grade At River

"Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Black and family and the other inhabitants of Room 6 cordially invite you to an Open Egg, Friday, March 16, 9:00 to 2:45."

This was the invitation (on egg-shaped paper, with a split paper egg shell for a cover) which went out last week from Mrs. Lucy Foster's second grade class at River School, Room 6. The guests ing questions were asked the five candidates: About how many spaces should be provided? In what area should they be located? Who should pay for their acquisition and operation — business people, the city, other?

VOTING PLACE NEEDED

County Clerk Emmet G. McMennamin is unable, as yet, to find anyone willing to provide a voting place in Carmel's 13th precinct for the primary election on June 5.

The precinct center is at Ocean Avenue and Carpenter Street. It extends south to Mountain View Avenue, north to Fourth Street, east to the city limits, in irregular lines.

Any person who provides space for a voting place is paid for this service. Mr. McMennamin or Mrs. Marie Barker, district inspector, would like to receive offers in the 13th precinct.

who responded were all the rest of the students, faculty and staff at the school.

And a more enthusiastic group has never been brought together than the guests who drifted in and out for that Open Egg, which was something like an open house, it seems, in honor of a family of newly hatched chickens.

For this was more than an invitation. It was the fitting climax to a long story of triumph over disaster, of struggle and failure, struggle and final success in a domestic drama played out before the fascinated eyes of the second graders who adopted Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Black, a rooster and brooding hen respectively.

But the story is told best by Mrs. Foster's second graders themselves, who published nearly daily reports on the chicken saga, called The Farmers' Bulletin, beginning back in January with the predecessors of Mr. and Mrs. Black whose fate is chronicled in the

Juvenile Thefts For Second Time Police Problem

The theft of a small sum of money from a locker at Sunset School, reported to the Carmel Police Department on Friday, triggered investigation of petty thievery and burglary carried on over the past six weeks by a group of 16 juveniles, including two girls, and the recovery of an assortment of articles taken from Sunset School, a Carmel restaurant, two record shops, the dime store, a toy store, grocery, residences and a liquor store.

Piled in the police station this morning was "loot" accumulated by the juveniles, most of them seventh and eighth graders at Sunset, but including boys up to sophomore high school age.

This was the second instance this year of such juvenile activity. The first "round-up" was on January 23 when Carmel Police reported offenders to the county probation officer.

A few of the juveniles involved in the January incident were implicated in this week's discoveries, but to a greater degree.

According to the police report, these second-time offenders were inclined to treat their previous involvements with the law "as a joke." They "gained prestige" with other students as a result of the incident, the report continues.

This "hard core" group became the center of a series of petty thefts which expanded on the "you were in" principle. In other words stolen articles turned in by juveniles proved they were part of a group of adventurers.

There were no leaders and no "gang" as such, but those students who excelled at the "sport" gained added group prestige, the police report indicates.

One 14-year-old entered Sunset School by means of an open window three or four times, accompanied by two other boys. He found the key to the Rinky Dink Restaurant, entered the premises and took a small sum of money also with the two boys. This same boy took various articles from the toy shop at the corner of San

State Senator Fred Farr of Carmel, last Thursday, presented to the California Senate a report on a preliminary plan for scenic highways in this state. The same day, Governor Edmund G. Brown called for designation as "scenic highways" the 5,000 miles of roadway in California so proposed in the report.

Senator Farr will submit a bill to the California Legislature in 1963 containing the governor's proposal. The preliminary plan for a system of scenic highways in California is the first comprehensive plan for a full scenic highway system offered in any state, according to Senator Farr.

And it all started here.

Three years ago, residents of Monterey County, particularly of the Monterey Peninsula and the coastal area below Carmel, alarmed by the fact that Highway One from Carmel south to the San Luis Obispo County line was included in the state's freeway system plans, clamored angrily about devastation to cliffs and canyons if any freeway were built along the coast. Thomson J. Hudson of Point Lobos, Monterey County supervisor, and

CARMEL HIGH TRACK TEAMS SPLIT WITH LIVE OAK

Winning the lightweight division, 78 to 34, but dropping a 77-36 decision in the heavyweight class, Carmel High's track teams got a standoff with the Live Oak thinclads in last Friday's league engagement at the Padre oval. The Live Oak varsity was deep and strong in the sprints and showed exceptional power in the weights to pile up an insurmountable lead against Coach Lloyd Baskerville's hard-trying crew. Carmel's well-balanced lightweight gang got double wins from Ted Leidig and Randy Mapstead to post an easy victory over the Little Acorns.

Top individual effort of the varsity meet was Rich Shively's 6.1 high jump which goes on the books as a new school record. The slender senior just brushed the bar at 6.2 and appears capable of adding a few more inches to his record-breaking performance. Rick Baldwin, top Padre hurdler, racked up a double in the timber topping event, winning the highs in 17 flat and the lows in 22.7. Sophomore Scott Hennessy also picked up a first place for the Padres, winning the mile run after a tough duel with Live Oak's Hernandez.

Also scoring points for the Padre varsity were Jack Hinchcliff, 3rd high hurdles; Lee Oleson, 3rd 880; Brendon Seaborn, 3rd 100 and 220; Jim Markowitz, 3rd shot-put; Rob Holt, 1st pole-vault and tie for 3rd in high-jump; Warren Chapman, 2nd 440; and Jim Trivette, tie for 3rd shot-put.

In addition to the double wins by Leidig and Mapstead, other point-makers for the victorious lightweights were Tom Leutzinger, 1st high hurdles; Pete Blake, 2nd 660 and tie for 2nd pole-vault; Manuel DeLeon, 3rd 75; Ken Wiese, 3rd 330; John Tolán, 1st low hurdles; Jose Fernandez, 3rd 150; Jeff McKenna, 3rd 1320; Ed Neroda, 1st shot-put; Phil Zobel, 1st discus and 2nd shot-put; Gary Mumford, 1st pole-vault; David Terry, tie for 2nd pole-vault; Ray Rhodes, 3rd high-jump; and Carmel's winning 440 relay team of Leidig, Fernandez, Zobel and Al Marshall.

This Friday afternoon the Gonzales Spartans come to Bardarson Field for a dual meet with the Padre varsity and lightweight squads.

CARMEL SWIMMERS TOO STRONG FOR LIVE OAK

Using his top performers sparingly, Coach Jim Agan watched his reserve swimmers take seven first places in last Friday's dual meet with the inexperienced Live Oak tankmen. The visiting Acorns won the 50 freestyle and the 50 butterfly but were outclassed in all the other events as the well-balanced Carmel squad piled up 52 points to 25 for the visitors. Sophomore Jim Holt was a double winner for the Carmel natators, splashing to wins in the 200 freestyle and the 100 individual medley. Art Horning, Al Nishimura, and Bob Wells were on two winning relay teams which threatened the present school records.

Adding to the Carmel point total were Keith Jones, 2nd 200 freestyle; Gregory Benjamin, 3rd 50 freestyle; Maynard Petersen, 2nd 50 butterfly; Chris Rose, 3rd 50 butterfly; Bruce Ricker, 1st 100 backstroke; Bruce Campbell, 1st 100 breaststroke; Mike Paul, 1st 100 freestyle; Jeff Porter, 2nd 100 individual medley; and Tom Farrell, 200 freestyle relay.

This Saturday morning the Padre swimmers journey to Watsonville for varsity and lightweight meets with the talented Wildcat splashers.

PADRE NINE LOSES TO HOLLISTER AND PALMA

Carmel High's varsity baseball team opened the 1962 season during the past weekend and absorbed playing lessons from both the Hollister Haybalers and the Palma Chieftains. Hollister clipped Coach Hadley Hicks's charges, 5 to 1, and the Palma sluggers routed the Padres, 13 to 0. In spite of losing the opening games, the Padres showed promise of developing into a dangerous aggregation and should be a factor in the CCAL B-division race before the season is over. In the opener against Hollister, Carmel had a 1-0 lead going into the last frame when the Haybalers exploded for five runs on three walks and a pair of clutch singles.

Skip Michelson, a newcomer to baseball at the Padre campus, pitched a steady game against Hollister, allowing the Haybalers three hits over the six-inning route and striking out nine of Coach Bob Matson's sluggers. The Padres picked up four safe blows off the slants of Hollister's Joe Rodgers, but couldn't bunch the safeties for a big inning. Rance Kastor, Jim Kelley, Al Tegmeier, and Bob Moffatt were the Padres to solve the tricky slants of pitcher Rodgers.

No doubt travel-weary because they had to make two trips to Salinas for their joust with Palma, the Carmel varsity players appeared to be a few practice sessions short of being ready for the likes of the Chieftains. Faulty communications had the Padres meeting Palma in a junior-varsity and varsity double-header Saturday afternoon, but the actual playing time was 7:30 Saturday night and the jayvees made the trip for the scenery.

Sophomore Steve Johnson toiled on the mound for Carmel in the Palma clash, giving up 11 hits while striking out four Chieftain swingers. The Padres garnered five blows off Palma's John Garvis with Mike Escondon and Rance Kastor each getting a pair. Howdy King, talented sophomore infielder, helped himself to a well-stroked single and played flawless ball in the field.

The Padre nine goes after its first league win tomorrow afternoon when the Gilroy High Mustangs invade the Carmel diamond for a four o'clock game. Gilroy has veterans in nearly every position and is slated to be tough to handle in the B-division pennant chase. Lack of topflight pitching may hamper the Mustangs, but they have good power at the plate and one of the best fielding teams in the league. On Wednesday, March 28, the Padres visit Monterey's El Estero Park for a 3:30 game with Dan Albert's Monterey High Toradors.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra's third pair of concerts this season, Monday in Salinas and Tuesday in Carmel, drew excellent houses, especially in Carmel. The orchestra under Conductor John Gosling has made steady progress; added new players to its personnel; and is winning respect far afield, which the coming State contest for young composers emphasizes.

The orchestra was visited Saturday by Dr. Richard Lert, the National Symphony League's eminent conductor under whom a number of our best players contribute annually to the League's Workshop at Asilomar. Lert has been affectionately made an honorary member of the Monterey Peninsula Symphony organization.

Opening Monday evening with Samuel Barber's Adagio for Strings, now well known on symphonic programs, some of the most sympathetically modulated string work the orchestra has ever done gave it a rendering of distinction which received full recognition in the enthusiasm that recalled Gosling and the orchestra several times.

Karen Steinke, at present teaching at Carmel High School, had recognition as a concert singer before coming to the Peninsula. She won this year's County Symphony contest for soloists, and during the first part of Tuesday evening's program sang three operatic arias, one each from Alceste, Il Trovatore and The Consul.

Gifted with plenty of good voice (which can be freed from a tendency to excessive resonance in parts of her scale), fine diction and a pleasing personality, she also has strong dramatic instincts, musically comprehension and an ingratiating manner. In her truthful concepts and concentration she delivered each part convincingly and artistically. The difficult Menotti excerpt from The Consul was the highlight. She received a presentation of yellow roses and many recalls. The orchestra also was recalled for the accompaniments to her singing.

The long Beethoven Eroica Symphony occupied the second half of the program. Its difficult and exacting orchestration was gallantly met by the exuberant players guided by Gosling with his strong sense of construction and dynamics. If Anna Moffo, Pennsylvania-born soprano who has been acclaimed for her beauty and phenomenal success as an opera singer both in this country and Europe during the past five years, will sing tomorrow evening at Sunset School Auditorium under the auspices of the Carmel Music Society. The concert starts at 8:30 o'clock, and will be the annual Katherine Menzies Memorial event of the society's 1961-62 season.

the audience found it somewhat lengthy (it is one of the longest symphonies written) it nevertheless held their interest listening throughout and drew deserved recognition for all concerned.

The printed programs contained interesting plans for the future written by Director Gosling and Symphony Association President Eugene Harrah, also notes on Owen Dunsford, orchestra leader, and John Farr, personnel manager, under Meet Your Orchestra, which feature we hope will be continued in the programs of the next concerts, May 14 and 15, as well for concert in King City. These next programs will include the Hartnell Community Chorus and guest soloists in the Purcell opera, Dido and Aeneas.

Eggs To Pinfeathers— Saga Of Six Chicks Told By Second Graders

Here is a sampling of Bulletin news:

January 11. SAD EGGS! When we came in the classroom, one of the eggs was cracked. And Iko started to peck at it. The egg fell out of the box and the chickens started eating the shell and the yolk. And now we have four eggs. Five minus one equals four.

January 22. EGG! Brownie laid one egg today. The rooster went Er—er—er—oo! OH NO! The incubator got too hot. And it is too bad. The hens and rooster ate one egg. We are sad. Weather today: Cold and snowy.

January 24. EXTRA! BIG NEWS! Brownie laid one egg and we are happy and yesterday Brownie laid an egg. In five more days the eggs in the incubator will hatch.

February 7. EGGS! The hen laid two eggs. Now we have nine eggs in the nest. Seven plus two equals nine. Weather today: rain and clouds.

February 18. HAPPY and SAD. This morning... Iko was not in the cage. Iko was DEAD! Monday Mrs. Williams (Mrs. Laidlaw Williams of Carmel Highlands, loyal benefactress of Room 6) gave us another brooding hen, and right away we put her on the nest and she started brooding. Her name is Mrs. Black. Alvin is making lots of noise to tell her he is taking care of her.

February 20. BIG NEWS! Mrs. Black is brooding. We put a sign on the window and it said: "Quiet Please. Brooding hen."

February 26. STILL BROODING! Mrs. Black is still brooding! Alvin gets on the nest when Mrs. Black gets off to eat. Weather: cold and windy. Sunshine.

February 28. TOO MANY TIMES! Mrs. Black got off the nest two times yesterday and today. She is back on it now. (The children had been told that once a day is enough for a hen to leave her eggs to eat.)

March 1. STILL SETTING. Mrs. Black is still sitting on the eggs.

Alvin always stands by the nest. I think he wants Mrs. Black to have a family! He gets on the nest when she gets off.

March 5. ALVIN CROWED. Today Alvin the rooster crowed while we were out at recess. And it started raining.

March 8. HEN PECKS AT TEACHER! Mrs. Foster went to see about the water in the cage and Mrs. Black got all fluffed up and pecked at her.

March 12. EXTRA! Read all about it. NEW HATCHED EGGS. Mrs. Black was sitting on the eggs but now she does not have to sit on the eggs any more because she has babies, and the rooster is excited. AND BOY ARE WE! Two little chickens hatched today. We named them Fluffy and Tweety. We voted for the names.

March 13. MORE CHICKS. Big news. The chickies hatched three or two eggs and we saw one chickie hatch. Now we have six or five. There are four black, one yellow, one brown. GIANT NEWS! Today three more eggs hatched.

March 15. SMASHED EGG! Today somehow an egg got smashed. Maybe Mrs. Black did it and maybe she didn't. DEAD! Chicken! Today Mrs. Foster saw that the smashed egg and the chicken were dead. And Mrs. Black is sad and so are we! LIVE CHICKENS! We have six chickens and they are alive. These are the names: Fluffy, Tweety, Blondie, Donald, Mickey, and Daffy. They are all very healthy. They can drink and eat. They are very happy.

March 20. GROWING FEATHERS. The baby chicks are growing feathers. Mrs. Williams said that they would look ugly while they were growing feathers. CHICK FLIES! Today one of the chicks flew into the nest. HAPPY DAYS WITH FEATHERS. The chickens are growing feathers. We are happy because they will soon be grown up.

And a note at the end. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Williams, their stint at midwifery over, say the Bantam brood in Room 6 is an even more spectacular feat than is indicated in the reliable Farmers' Bulletin. Mrs. Foster herself has been trying for some six years to raise baby chicks in an incubator in her classroom, with notorious lack of success "except for one year when one small chicken hatched, tottered over to the drinking dish, fell in and drowned."

The gift of the successful brooding hen from Mrs. Williams has been an inspiration. Mrs. Foster said today. After all those years with the incubator perhaps it proves that the old ways are best after all.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETING

Members of the Carmel Women's Democratic Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Saul Weingarten for luncheon and the opportunity to hear Margaret Price, vice-chairman of the National Democratic Committee. Mrs. Price stressed in her talk the increasing importance of women as voters, and the need for more voter communication with congressmen.

Planners Ponder Possible Abundance Of Unwanted Signs

Carmel planners yesterday afternoon during a study session considered the possibility of an undesirable number of signs at the entrances to court developments in the business district, if the tendency to court development continues.

At present each occupancy of a court may have one square foot directional sign placed on a standard at the entrance to the court, according to commission stated policy, also a three square foot sign over the sidewalk.

The question posed to commissioners by Building Inspector Floyd Adams yesterday was "Is the three-foot sign also a directional sign?"

Commissioner Herbert Blanks declared "Now is the time to start a directional sign policy." He was referring to the fact that the commission some months ago stated as policy how directional signs should be placed at the entrances to courts. Since then, considering each court sign application individually, the commission has varied from their stated policy in some instances.

Commissioner Hugh Smith said that granting of court signs depended on the number of kinds of occupancies, number of kinds and shapes of signs applied for in each court.

Chairman Fred Keeble referred the application which instigated the discussion back to the design review committee of the commission. The request was for two signs in Pantiles Court where The Cole Bin and Pacifica shop are to be combined as one business. The unusual, thus eliminating some signs, but leaving vacant premises which might, on future occupancy, also request signs.

As soon as Mrs. Dorothy von Meier arrived to make a five-commissioner quorum, necessary for a board of adjustments public hearing, commissioners held hearings on three matters and deferred action on all three until their regular meeting next week.

These matters were: a request for a variance for a nine-foot front set back on property on Torres Street between Eighth and Ninth avenues because of steep terrain, asked by S. J. Hindle of Beverly Hills; Earl Du Laney's request for a use permit to establish as building sites three parcels of land at the northwest corner of Guadalupe and Fifth, each equal to or in excess of 4,000 square feet; L. E. Gottfried's request that a previously granted use permit be amended to allow new subdivision of property on Flanders Way in the Eighty Acres, each portion of this land in excess of the regulation requirement of 4,000 square feet.

Editorial ...

Senator Farr set out to discover means to prevent such destruction of one of the most beautiful coastlines in the world.

Senator Farr succeeded in having this section of Highway One removed from the state freeway master plan. Monterey County retained the firm of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill to prepare a master plan for the proper development of the coast road. Then Governor Brown appointed an interdepartmental group to report to him on Senator Farr's proposal that the 80 miles of road below Carmel be made a scenic highway. This group, after studying Monterey's prototype scenic highway plan, recommended statewide extension of such roadways.

The 5,000-mile proposed scenic road system links mountains, seashore and desert; gives access to national and state forests, national parks and monuments, state beaches and parks.

Highway One from Mexico to the Oregon border is designated as a scenic road. Another such road follows the line of the Sierra. The two are joined by east-west scenic routes. One goes from Mount Lassen to Eureka, the other from Sequoia to San Luis Obispo.

California's historical heritage may be explored on these roads, also the state's recreational areas and varied scenic beauty.

It is a system worth fighting for. Senator Farr says, "It is urgent that we act now to protect existing scenic roads in California, for both present and future generations, from the bulldozer, the billboard and shoddy ribbon commercial development."

The report he presented to the Senate was prepared by the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Scenic Highways, the Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee on Scenic Highways, and the Department of Public Works. It states that the scenic highway system is "vital to the social and economic welfare of California."

Recommendations are that local governments in scenic corridors should regulate land use; initiate planning in advance of impending development; courageously explore new methods and programs; thus make conservation realistically attainable along scenic routes.

In this area, where the scenic highway concept originated, we already are putting such suggestions into effect with the coast master plan being prepared by Monterey County.

"The scenic highway program will require the positive support of many organizations and individuals throughout the state in order to accomplish by legislative action the recommendations to the 1963 Legislature," Senator Farr told the Pine Cone.

We know he will receive support from this area. What we need to do is help him gain the support of the rest of California. It is a challenge.

—Marjory Lloyd.

Tri-County Science Fair Open To Public Saturday And Sunday

Some 200 individual and group science projects and exhibits will be on view Saturday and Sunday at the second annual Tri-County Science Fair in the Monterey Youth Center, El Estero Lake, Monterey.

The public is invited to attend the Fair from 9:00 o'clock in the morning to 10:00 in the evening on Saturday, and from 9:00 to noon Sunday morning.

Judging of works of pupils from public, parochial and private schools in Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz counties will take place today and tomorrow. Awards will be given out Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Several categories of biological and physical sciences will be represented in the work of the youngsters that will range from class projects of kindergartens through individual and group projects of pupils in kindergarten through high school. A trip to the National Science Fair in Seattle next May is in the offing for some outstanding student and his teacher if the judges find a project they think is worth sending on.

Financial support for the Tri-County Fair comes from business, industry and private individuals. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Anna T. Miller, chairman of the finance committee, 32 Bayview Road, Castroville. Checks should be made out to Tri-County Science Fair Fund.

An outgrowth of the Monterey County Science Fair, which was begun in 1956, the Tri-County affair is endorsed by the county superintendents of schools of the three counties. The Science Fair has been established here, as throughout the county, to stimulate youth to greater interest in the various fields of science and to provide an opportunity for students to display their scientific talent.

To qualify for entry, a project must be an attempt to solve a problem within the divisions of science and to show the partial or final conclusions by use of a scientific method. According to the committee's definition, a science project should express an attempt to solve a problem, and a problem is merely a concise question passed for solution.

Part of the judging procedure will include an interview by judges with each individual exhibitor or group leader in order to give the youngsters an opportunity to explain their projects. Magazine subscriptions will be given to all individual contestants placing first, second and third.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg
This definition of a library was published in the last issue of the Bulletin of the American Library Association.

WHAT IS A LIBRARY?

Many Things . . . It is eyes: the eyes of 40 children sitting enraptured in once-a-week stillness for Saturday storytime; the sparkling twinkle of the new bride looking for the cookbook section. It is hands: the gnarled hands of old-timers selecting magazines and papers for quiet contemplation in the periodical section; the little fist with five pennies for the overdue, much-loved copy of Peter Rabbit. It is postures: the intense hunched back of the graduate student; the relaxed fiction reading of the housewife escaping for 30 minutes from a busy day. Libraries, like books, are many things to many people. They play a vital role in a growing America.

From time to time over the past few years we have been importuned for the daily New York Times. Four months ago we began taking it and we told all about it in this column. We expected hordes of people to crowd into the library to read the Times. Who reads it? One patron who comes in about once a week. Day after day we file the copy for the day before and it hasn't even been opened. We are paid up for one year. With such enthusiasm, one year will end this experiment.

This week we have Here Comes, There Goes, You Know Who, which is the autobiography of William Saroyan. This is Saroyan, and that is enough to say about the book.

For the theatre collection we have two new books. One is Actors Talk About Acting edited by Lewis Funke. This is a fascinating book to anyone interested in theatre and actors. It is comprised of a series of interviews with well known actors. Each interview is prefaced with a short biography of the person to be interviewed, and a description of the setting for the interview. Then a word by word account of all that was said. Fourteen famous persons of the theatre were included in the book, among them John Gielgud, the Lunts, Helen Hayes, Katharine Cornell, and Bert Lahr. The settings are almost as revealing as the interviews.

Two new books are on Communism. The first is Red China, An Asian View, by Chandra-Sekhar, who is a social scientist in India. The other book is the much discussed The Naked Communist by Skousen. This is the book which was featured on a television program a few weeks ago. Almost immediately after that it went out of stock, but now we have a copy from the county library and all is well.

A beautiful new book is Birds Of The World by Oliver Austin. We have two copies, our own will be in the reference collection and will not circulate; the second copy from the Monterey County Library will be a circulating copy. Beautiful illustrations and an easy to use index make this large book of special value.

Now heat from Canada helps keep 'em cozy

Warmth for your family comes from Canada through a new 1400-mile pipeline! The story behind this big pipeline project is a dramatic one: five thousand men dug, graded, drilled and blasted their way from Alberta, Canada, to Antioch, California . . . wrestled a half-million tons of yard-wide steel pipe into the ground in just fourteen months! The pipeline taps still another source of natural gas . . . bringing a new supply of comfort and energy to Northern and Central California. PG&E hustle and years-ahead planning, like this, demonstrate how pioneering enterprise serves a state-on-the-grow.

Carmel Foundation Elects New Officers At Annual Meeting

New officers were elected following the annual meeting of the Carmel Foundation on March 14 in All Saints' Parish Hall. Dr. Robert P. Parsons succeeds Mrs. Carl E. Menneken as president. Mrs. Fred Glascock is the 1962-63 vice president; Mrs. Rudolph ver Mehr, Jr., secretary; Leet W. Bissell, treasurer. Mrs. Sidney Trevvett is honorary president of the foundation.

Board members re-elected at the meeting for terms ending in 1965 were Mrs. Laurence B. Barretto, Mrs. Patrick Henry Hudgins, Dr. Ernest J. Jaqua, Gerald Keith, Dr. Parsons, Dudley Swim and Mrs. ver Mehr.

Mrs. Menneken was extended a vote of thanks and appreciation for her contribution to the foundation during her tenure by Dr. Parsons, who also made special mention of the work Captain Archer M. R. Allen did in the years the foundation was being established.

The report of Mrs. Ruth Sarett, executive director, made special mention of the achievements of this first decade of service to the community, emphasizing home service. She also paid tribute to Dr. Helen Field who initiated many of the most significant services still carried out today. During the past year an average of 36 individuals a month have been helped to find solutions to the problems which face them, some of a temporary nature, others lasting over long periods. The aim of such services is to help senior men and women remain adequate and independent as long as possible.

The report of Mrs. Keith S. Mesent, assistant director, listed the cultural, craft, and social activities of Town House, and extended thanks to the Carmel adult education program, American Association of University Women, Arena Blanca Poets, Red Cross, Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services, Soroptimists, many individual volunteers, and the Peninsula Garden Club which co-sponsors many of the Monterey Peninsula Senior Tours.

Mrs. Menneken extended the gratitude of the board to the many community organizations which make financial and personal contributions to the foundation.

Leet W. Bissell gave the treasurer's report; Dr. Robert W. Aurner the report of the finance committee. The latter stated that running expenses had been kept within the modest budget made possible by careful planning, and that the foundation is completely dependent upon the generosity of the community for these funds. The accomplishment of long range goals will only be possible through special gifts and bequests over and above regular contributions, he added.

Dr. Remsen Bird reported the purchase of a piano during the year as a memorial to Francis Moulton, a beloved member of the board until his death in March last year, the funds for which were given in his memory by his friends.

Following the meeting, the board gave a tea at Town House.

Public Invited To Free Showing Of French Film At MPC

Forbidden Games, a French war film which has been called the masterwork of Director Rene Clement, will be shown March 30 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening in the Monterey Peninsula College Armory.

Produced in France, the film does not deal with actual warfare. It tells the story of two babes-in-the-woods—a five-year-old girl and an 11-year-old boy—who engage in a gruesome game: collecting dead animals for their private cemetery and stealing crosses from churches and graveyards to use as headstones.

A tragicomic fable on the theme of love, innocence, Christianity, war and death, Forbidden Games uses methods suggestive rather than explicit to put over its points. At first a commercial disaster, it later won the Grand Prix in Venice in 1952, the New York Film Critics' Award, and a special Academy award.

With the feature will be shown a Laurel and Hardy short, The Music Box. Jack Benson will introduce both films.

The showing, open to the public without charge, will see the initiation of new projecting equipment, according to Phil Chamberlin of the evening division staff. The use of two projectors will eliminate the necessity for pauses for the changing of reels, and the brightness of the screen image will be "considerably boosted," he says.

Operation Update Free Lecture Series Begins March 29

Operation Update, a series of four lectures on modern educational developments for "the forgotten woman in the educational scheme . . . the woman who, having been out of school for some time, yearns to know what's going on in the colleges," will open March 29 at Monterey Peninsula College.

Co-sponsored by MPC and the American Association of University Women, Monterey Peninsula branch, Operation Update was initiated last year as a college refresher course patterned after a similar one offered at Radcliffe College. It drew large, enthusiastic audiences, an AAUW award for community service, and many subsequent inquiries from other parts of the state.

Arthur Oswald, MPC anthropology instructor, will launch the 1962 version of Operation Update a week from today. Dr. Bruce Hubbard, music instructor, will lecture on contemporary music (jazz) April 5; Dean of Students Ralph B. Smith on political science April 12; and Dr. Eugene C. Haderlie, chairman of MPC's natural sciences department, on biological science April 26.

Each session will begin at 10:00 o'clock in the morning, include a coffee break followed by a question-and-answer period, and end at noon.

All women in the area are invited to attend without charge. For those with young children, a nursery will be maintained in the college art gallery downstairs in the library building, with an AAUW supervisor and two college students constantly in attendance.

Carmel members of the AAUW who are helping with arrangements for Operation Update include Mrs. Joseph McEldowney, who heads the greeting and serving committee; Mrs. J. W. Braucht, who will introduce Mr. Oswald; and Mrs. Everett Bibb, who will introduce Dr. Haderlie.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The healing power of scientific prayer will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" will include an account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the lunatic boy, together with his reply to the disciples who asked him why they could not heal him (Matthew 17):

"And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (p. 1): "The prayer that reforms the sinner and heals the sick is an absolute faith that all things are possible to God,—a spiritual understanding of Him, an unselfed love."

Carolyn and Millard Are Engaged

A champagne dinner party at Leavell's in Carmel Valley on March 10 honored the engagement of Carolyn Priestley Pye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pye of Jacks Peak, and Millard Bernard Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin, Jr., of Carmel. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were hosts at the dinner and their guests were members of the two immediate families.

The young couple will be married April 14 in a garden wedding at The Studio, the home of Carolyn's parents.

The bride-to-be, who lived with her family in Carmel before they moved to Jacks Peak, graduated from Carmel High School in 1959, completed her studies at Monterey Peninsula College in 1961, and attended the University of California last semester. Her older sister, Lorraine (Mrs. Selwyn Burr), lives in Colorado.

Millard attended Sunset School, was a graduate of Carmel High School in 1955 and of San Jose State College in 1960. Well-known on the Peninsula as a clarinetist, he gave clarinet lessons here while still in college. He is now in his second year of teaching orchestra and band ("He is the whole music department," reports his mother) at the elementary school in San Miguel. His sister, Jeannie, is a senior at Carmel High School.

Carolyn and Millard will make their home in Paso Robles.

Andy Elliott Home on Leave

Marine Pfc. Andrew J. Elliott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Elliott, is home on leave after his recent graduation from the Aviation Ordnanceman School at the Naval Air Technical Training Unit at Jacksonville, Florida.

A 1959 graduate of Carmel High School, Andy attended Monterey Peninsula College for a year and a half before joining the Marine Corps.

Happy Occasion For Oscar

Carmel High School's Oscar (one of the caretakers), who is Oscar Miller of 1625 Lowell Street, Seaside, has been proudly displaying the gilt-framed certificates of United-States citizenship which were awarded Wednesday of last week to Lue Jimmie Miller, eight, and Ollie Ruth Miller, seven.

The children are from Korea, and are the adopted daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Until the momentous ceremony of their naturalization last week, Lue Jimmie's name was Bok Hi Kim, and Ollie Ruth's was Sung Ok Park.

Celebrate Spring's Arrival

An outdoor gathering in honor of the spring solstice was held on Sunday afternoon in the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw Williams. Some 35 friends and Carmel Highlands neighbors, of all ages, assembled around the outdoor fireplace for a meal of broiled chicken and homemade bread, while the weather obligingly cooperated with the celebration.

Ann Brodhead Engaged to Wed

The engagement of Ann Brodhead of Carmel and Michael J. Weber of San Mateo has been announced by Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brodhead of Arcadia. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Weber of San Francisco. The couple will be married in June.

Culture Vultures To Meet

The Monterey Peninsula Culture Vultures will meet on Tuesday at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon in the Middle Ball Room at the Naval Postgraduate School.

Following a business meeting, Barbara Burdick, curator of the Custom House, will give an illustrated talk on the Hearst Castle at San Simeon. All interested persons are invited to attend and may call Mrs. Paul Smith, FR 2-9072, for information.

Returns From Conference

Mrs. Richard Lofton returned on Sunday from a four-day conference of the State Resource Committee for the Standard Teaching Credential, which was held in Santa Monica. Mrs. Lofton is a teacher at Monte Vista School in Monterey.

Linda, Hilary Tell of Travels

Linda and Hilary Teague, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Teague, enrolled last week in a Carmel secretarial school and are settling down to a study routine again after five exciting months in Europe and a homeward trip on the maiden voyage of the new liner, France.

All the Teagues went abroad last September, and after a period of independent and family travel, the older Teagues came back to Carmel while the girls enrolled at a university in Aix-en-Provence.

"But the university proved to be disappointing," Hilary admits, "so after three weeks we decided to leave Aix and just travel." Partly by train and partly in a car, the girls explored Italy, parts of Germany; spent a month in Paris, and another month in London where family friends showed them around.

Christmas Day in Munich was also Hilary's birthday, fittingly celebrated with friends and with champagne. "Munich at Christmas time is a wonderful place," comments Hilary.

Both girls were impressed by a two-hour bus tour they took into

East Berlin on New Year's Day, driving through the entrance in the Berlin wall known as Checkpoint Charlie. A West Berlin guide escorted them as far as the wall; then an East Berlin guide took over. "The contrast was extraordinary. West Berlin is gay, full of new buildings and delightful citizens. East Berlin was so drab; there seemed to be no color at all. Russian soldiers (not East Germans) were everywhere. There were far more soldiers in the streets than ordinary people; we were told that a great many of the residents were at New Year church services in defiance of regulations."

West Coast Coward Premiere March 30 At Studio Theatre

The Studio Theatre will present the West Coast premiere of Noel Coward's comedy, Relative Values, on March 30 at 8:30 o'clock in the evening. This is the play he wrote starring Gladys Cooper and Angela Baddeley and which enjoyed a big London success at the Savoy Theatre.

Whenever Noel Coward's name is mentioned, people instinctively think of the brittle, the witty and the sophisticated, and are likely to forget the lyric romance of the musical, Bitter Sweet, the tribute to tradition of Cavalcade, the salute to King and Country of In Which We Serve, and the keen human insight of Tonight at 8:30.

Relative Values, although it contains elements of his other writings, is also, in a sense, a departure from his previous works. It is a warm and endearing play with high comedy overtones. The dialogue, as is to be expected, is wonderfully amusing, and the plot a subtle comment on the changing British social scene. The characters are diverse and colorful. They are likable human beings working out their separate destinies, sometimes humorously, sometimes ridiculously.

Barbara Horder West is again directing for The Studio Theatre. English-born, she has appeared in countless London productions. With Dame Sybil Thorndike she played in St. Joan and Henry The Eighth; with Sir Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh was seen on Broadway in Romeo and Juliet.

She has acted in Germany in stock and had two seasons with the Birmingham Repertory Theatre. She played at the International Theatre Festival in Paris. In Canada, Miss West directed at the Vancouver Little Theatre and lectured on speech and drama in addition to directing plays for the Canadian Dominion Drama Festival at Ottawa. At the San Francisco Municipal Theatre she taught acting technique and speech and directed.

Her previous directorial chores for The Studio Theatre have been See How They Run and Send Me No Flowers, both successes. Betty Hackett, Royden Martin and John Halloran will produce.

Section 1. Section 1202 of the Municipal Code be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 1202. The Superintendent of Streets may grant or deny such application as to him may seem advisable, provided, however, that in the event the Superintendent of Streets denies such application, the applicant may appeal to the City Council of said city and its action upon such application shall be final."

Section 2. That the Municipal Code be amended by the addition of a new section to be known as Section 1202.5, which shall read as follows:

"Section 1202.5. In cases where he deems necessary, the Superintendent of Streets may appoint a special inspector to supervise the work done under any permit during the progress of such work and in the event of the appointment of such inspector, the Superintendent of Streets shall certify to the City Clerk within ten (10) days after completion of such work so inspected, the amount of the inspector's fee to be charged. Such inspector's fees, so charged, shall be promptly billed to the permittee whose work was so inspected, who shall thereupon pay such fees."

Section 3. That Section 1204 of the Municipal Code be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"The condition of each such bond shall be that in the event the principal named therein shall comply with the provisions of this division, including the payment of any inspector's fees charged him under Section 1202.5, then said obligation shall be void, but in the event that said principal shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this division in the performance or doing of any of the work for which a permit is required by this division, or fail to maintain any restored street area in its former condition for a period of six (6) months as required by Section 1203 herein, then said bond shall be in full force and effect, and said Superintendent of Streets may direct said work to be corrected or so maintained, and the cost and expense of such correction or restoration of such street or sidewalk area, together with any unpaid fees, not exceeding the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), shall be collectible from the principal and/or the sureties on said bond."

Airman Second Class Owen Lloyd stopped off briefly in Carmel over the week end on his way from Korea, where he has been stationed for seven months with a missile guidance group, to his home in New York City before moving on to a new station in Georgia.

Owen is the son of Dr. David P. C. Lloyd, a neurophysiologist on the staff of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and Dr. Kathleen Elliott Lloyd, a member of the rehabilitation staff of Bellevue Hospital.

In Carmel he was the guest of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd, whose son and daughter-in-law, Skip and Sue Lloyd of San Francisco, brought Owen to Carmel.

Officers of Alcoholism Council

Recently elected officers of the Alcoholism Council of the Monterey Peninsula are the Reverend H. M. M. Nicholas, Carmel, president; Donald F. Taugher, M.D., Monterey, first vice-chairman; the Reverend Victor Davis of the Church of the Wayfarer, second vice-chairman; and Barbara Kynaston, Carmel, secretary-treasurer.

Visitor Returns to England

Lady MacMichael, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Commander and Mrs. James E. Raynes of Carmel Valley, and her grandchildren, Michael and Susie Raynes, left Saturday to return to her home in Kent, England.

Carmel's New Citizens

Among five Carmel residents who became United States citizens in naturalization ceremonies held last Wednesday in Superior Court in Salinas are Mrs. Reginald Lundell, Mrs. Robert D. Clappett, and Erik Jensen.

Mrs. Lundell, born Erica Filipek in her native Vienna, "always wanted to live in California." Sponsored by friends in Pomona, she came out here by way of Canada nearly five and one half years ago. After living in Pomona and Los Angeles, she moved to Carmel in 1958 when she married Reginald Lundell. She has had a position in a local bank for the past three years; her husband is a deputy county clerk for the City of Seaside.

Mrs. Clappett, the former Jacqueline Massin, was born in Cambrai, in northern France, and came to the United States and to Carmel in the summer of 1958. Her husband has a position with a brokerage firm in Monterey, and they have a small son, Robert D. Clappett, Jr., who is almost two years old. Mrs. Clappett is on the executive committee of the Alliance Francaise of the Monterey Peninsula, and at the moment is excited at the prospect of flying next month to France, her first trip home since she arrived in this country. She will visit her mother in Cambrai.

Erik Jensen came to this country from Denmark in November, 1956. After spending 13 months in Chicago he came west. He is employed by a local plumbing business, and for two years has been a member of Carmel's volunteer fire brigade. Mrs. Jensen is British and "has two more years to go," according to her husband, before she too becomes a citizen. Meanwhile the Jensens have recently bought a house in Carmel, "and we really feel settled."

The other new citizens who live in Carmel are Helen and James Alcorn, both from Scotland.

Stanley Givetz Engaged

Mrs. Richard Horace Crockett of Oceanside has announced the engagement of her stepdaughter, Mary Reeder Crockett, to Lieutenant Stanley Spencer Givetz, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Anthony Givetz of Carmel.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late Colonel Richard Horace Crockett (USMC) and the late Fannie Reeder Crockett of Memphis, Tennessee. She is a graduate of the Rex Hospital School of Nursing, Raleigh, North Carolina, and is at present employed by the State Hospital in Camarillo.

Lieutenant Givetz graduated from North Carolina State College with a bachelor of science degree in mathematics. Before entering the Army in February, he was a substitute teacher in mathematics and science in Peninsula high schools, and now attends the United States Army Air Defense School at Fort Bliss, Texas. His brother, Bruce, is a freshman at Carmel High School.

The young couple plan a late spring wedding.

Red Cross Youth Volunteers

Last Wednesday the youth volunteers of the Carmel chapter of the American Red Cross appeared before the Rotary Club to talk about their Red Cross activities.

Sandra DeCosta and Nancy Thompson, Sunset School students, showed samples of decorations they have made for the patients' dining room at the Fort Ord Hospital, also samples of gift boxes they have sent abroad and letters of thanks received from Japan and other countries.

Cathy Carter of Carmel High School told of her work with mentally retarded children and with the Bloodmobile.

Carolee Hanson and Lynn Porter, Monterey Peninsula College, spoke of their experience in the pediatrics department at Fort Ord Hospital, and of their work in the chapter and with the Bloodmobile.

Mrs. Blair McDonald is director of the youth volunteers.

Visitor From Tahoe

Elston Garrow of Lake Tahoe was a recent visitor to Carmel, where he was a guest for several days of his sister, Mrs. Lucial Oard and his niece, Mrs. Raymond Mapstead.

Since this marked his first return to the Peninsula in 38 years, Mr. Garrow enjoyed seeing both old landmarks and recent changes. Among the former, he said, was Mrs. Oard's vacation cottage in which Mr. Garrow spent his own honeymoon.

June Simpson to Speak

Carmel restaurateur June Simpson will be guest speaker for the House and Garden section of the Carmel Woman's Club Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the clubhouse.

Miss Simpson, for ten years a home economist in Seattle prior to entering business, and a home economics major when she was a student at the University of Washington, will speak on preparing and serving souffles.

The Monterey Bay Wellesley Club will hold its annual used book sale at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Pebble Beach home of Mrs. Richard L. Bower. Mrs. Bower will have as her co-hostesses Dr. Margaret Barnes, Mrs. Thomas Christian and Miss Margaret Andrews.

Tea will be served and a brief program presented. Wellesley Club members may make reservations by calling Mrs. Geoffrey Gardner, EXport 4-1836. Each member is urged to bring a guest.

Three New Arrivals

One girl and two boys joined Carmel area families recently.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lacey of Carmel on March 10 was a son, Richard Dean, in Monterey Hospital.

Now in Big Sur with his parents is Kent Eugene Pettie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Pettie. Kent was born March 4 in Peninsula Community Hospital.

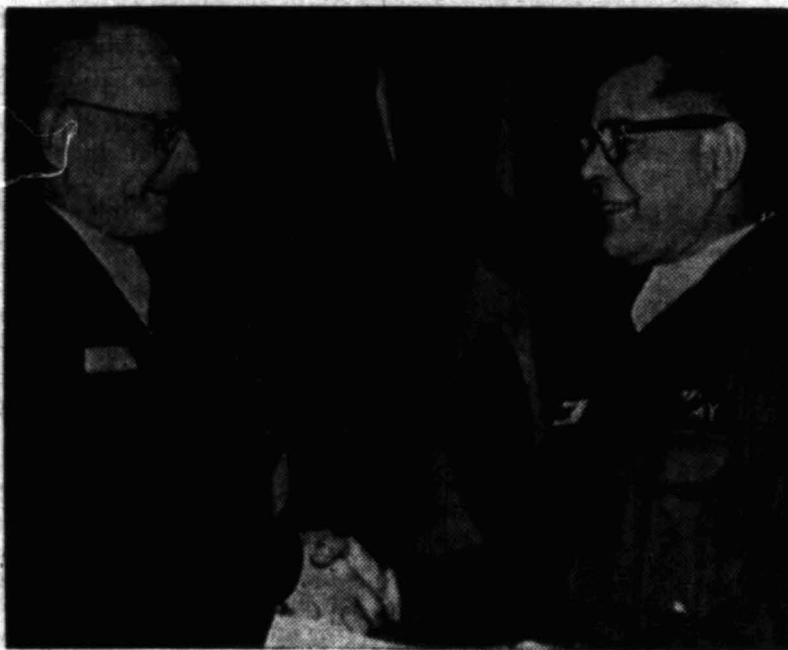

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bliss, who live at 90 Sage Road, Carmel Valley, became parents of a daughter, Paula Leigh, on March 6, at Community Hospital.

FIRE AND AMBULANCE CALLS

Carmel volunteer firemen responded to an ambulance call last Friday at 1:13 o'clock in the afternoon at the Pacific Gas and Electric Company building, Dolores and Seventh, when Mrs. L. Day Hart, whose address was listed as the Cypress West Hotel, fell on the sidewalk. She was treated at the scene by a private physician and taken by Red Cross ambulance to Peninsula Community Hospital.

Firemen also responded to two recent general alarms. On Friday morning at 7:25 o'clock 20 men and three engine companies were called to the Charles Davis home, Santa Rita and First, to put out an oven fire ignited by grease from a roasting turkey.

According to the Fire Depart-

Lieutenant Colonel Thaddeus W. Drobek (right) of Carmel, received congratulations and a certificate of achievement from Colonel E. Rager, commander of the U. S. Army, Pacific, in recent ceremonies in Korea. Colonel Drobek was given the award for outstanding service as commander of Taegu Sub Area, Headquarters, U. S. Army Pusan Area Command, and deputy commander of the U.S. Army, Pacific, for the period from November, 1960, to January, 1962.

The colonel lives at 22 Fisher Drive and is now stationed at Fort Ord. He and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Tha, 12, and Ricky, nine years old.

A general alarm on Tuesday brought out 25 fire fighters and three engine companies to the home of Alfred E. Bauer, on Monte Verde between Third and Fourth Avenues, where an electrical fire caused $2500 damage to a cabinet, wall and interior furnishings. The blaze was extinguished with 65 gallons of water.

Frank Dickson

A man who spent a large share of his life in service to the communities in which he lived, Frank Bernard Dickson, 71, died Saturday in a local hospital.

Mr. Dickson, who was vice president-treasurer of the Carmel Citizens Committee at the time of his death, had been a Carmelite since 1957. He was also a member of the Area Planning Commission and an outspoken foe of freeway construction in areas where such construction seemed to him unsuitable.

Born December 23, 1890, in Farmington, Missouri, Mr. Dickson had been a California resident for 40 years. For 25 years he was associated with the Standard Oil Company, retiring in 1942. He was a former member of the state committee of the State Trustees Association of Kern County and had served on the school board there for six years.

In addition he served on the California War Fund Committee and was a member of San Francisco's Commonwealth Club.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Anna May Dickson, who lives at Ocean Avenue and Guadalupe Street in Carmel; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Butler of Bakersfield and Mrs. Mary Link of Chicago, and three brothers, Paul Dickson of Bakersfield, Lynn Dickson and William Dickson, both of Chicago.

Graveside rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon at El Carmelo Cemetery, with the Reverend Karel V. Vit officiating. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Contributions to the Carmel Citizens Committee may be made as memorial tributes to Mr. Dickson. They should be addressed to the committee at P. O. Box 1101, Carmel.

Father Garbero

Word has been received of the death of the Reverend Father John Garbero in Cavour in the Province of Torino, Italy. Hospitalized at the time of his death, he had been in failing health for some time.

Father Garbero lived on the Monterey Peninsula for 15 years before returning to his native land three years ago. He was the chaplain for the Sisters of the Carmelite Monastery at San Jose Creek during the time he lived here.

He is survived by a sister in San Francisco, also two nephews, both priests.

Marie DesOrmiers

Mrs. Marie Louise DesOrmiers died on March 14 in a local hospital following a long illness. She was 92 years old.

Mrs. DesOrmiers was born on Christmas Day, 1869, in Canada. Her husband, Joseph DesOrmiers, died in 1932. For the past eight years she lived on Ford Road in Carmel Valley with her daughters, Mrs. Thomas D. Tift and Mrs. Warren C. Higby.

Besides her daughters, she is survived by four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Rosary was recited the evening following her death in Mission Mortuary. Private Requiem Mass was celebrated Friday morning in the chapel at the Presidio of Monterey. Burial was in Mission Memorial Park.

May Lent

Miss May N. Lent, a professor who founded the decorative arts department at the University of California, also a resident of Carmel for 15 years until she went, last year, to live in Rogue River Valley Manor, a retirement home in Medford, Oregon, died there on March 14. She had been in poor health for some time.

Miss Lent was an active member of the Church of the Wayfarer during the time she lived here.

She is survived by a cousin, Miss Adele Lee, a member of the staff of the U. S. Embassy in Berne, Switzerland.

Ottile Lowell

Mrs. Ottile J. Lowell, for many years a Carmel resident, died in New York City on February 25 following a long illness. News of her death was received here this week.

She was born in San Francisco on June 13, 1875, as Ottile J. Karstens. She trained to become a registered nurse at San Francisco County Hospital then, in 1898, joined the U.S. Army Nurses Corps and served in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War.

While in the Philippines she met Dr. C. H. Lowell, an Army contract surgeon. Later they were married and lived in San Francisco before moving to Los Angeles where Dr. Lowell practiced medicine, also was commissioned in the U.S. Navy and served as medical officer at the Navy's recruiting office in Los Angeles.

He retired from active Navy duty in 1925 and with Mrs. Lowell moved to Carmel and built a house near the beach. Until his death in 1930 he was a practicing physician here. Mrs. Lowell continued to live in Carmel until several years ago when she went to New York to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Shields.

She is also survived by a son, C. H. Lowell, who lives in Potter Valley in Mendocino County.

Funeral services were held in New York. Burial followed in the National Cemetery, Farmingdale, New York.

Briefs...

As Councilman Eben Whittlesey, also a member of the Carmel Recreation Commission, crossed the threshold of the council chambers with his Seeing Eye dog, Ragan, Tuesday afternoon, other recreation commissioners burst into song. "Happy Birthday to Eben" they carolled so blithely that City Clerk L. D. Rose rushed from his office to take his seat as recreation commission secretary and join in the fun.

Carmel Police Chief Clyde Klaumann filed his papers for the office of Monterey County Sheriff on Monday.

Among the signers of his intention to run for the office were all members of the Carmel City Council.

The story in this week's Pine Cone of hatching and raising chickens in Lucy Foster's second grade classroom at River School is not the only activity carried out so successfully in the continuing Farm Project in Room 6.

Last year's second grade class acquired an old-fashioned horse-drawn plough but no horse. The second graders hitched themselves to the plough, then ploughed. Later they sowed grain. It grew, ripened and was reaped. Then Mrs. Foster's pupils carried their harvest into River School singing "Bringing in the Sheaves."

This year's second grade pupils have done their ploughing and sowing. The harvest depends on sunshine, rain, and time.

The 54 members of the Carmel Rotary Club have donated $33,000 in cash or pledges to the new Community Hospital Building Fund. Their latest donation, $1,963, was accumulated from fines collected at their meetings.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, now Republican candidate for Governor of California, will be guest of honor at a community reception April 3 at 10:00 o'clock in the morning in the Monterey Peninsula Airport Terminal, according to George Tomlinson of Carmel, area chairman of the Nixon gubernatorial campaign in Monterey, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Luis Obispo, and San Benito counties.

Peninsula Youth Programs—Resources and Needs will be discussed at the March meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Community Council on Monday at noon in the Monterey USO, according to David Walton, council chairman. Those wishing to have luncheon should telephone FR 5-4155 for reservations before Saturday.

In a report accepted by the Carmel Recreation Commission Tuesday, Mrs. Gyla Smith suggested that the commission's delegated power to accept for recreation purposes gifts of funds and lands in and adjacent to the city might be used to acquire such land soon.

Mrs. Smith, a commissioner who has been an outspoken proponent of a recreation plan for Carmel and its environs in the face of the rapid encroachment of residence and business developments on natural areas, pointed out that such power is delegated the commission by ordinance.

She included in her 12-page report a survey of past plans for recreation development of this area, including the Livingston plan, a presentation made the city some six years ago by planning consultant Lawrence Livingston, which was never adopted in its entirety.

Mrs. Smith indicated she believes some parts of the plan can be adapted to suit today's recreation needs.

Twenty-five members of John Farr's Sunset School band, also choral groups from Tulare and Big Sur schools directed by Gene Perrine, took part in the Central Coast Section Music Festival in Hollister on Saturday.

Sponsored by the California Music Educators Association, the festival included participants from elementary schools throughout Monterey, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties.

A trip up the Valley is rewarding these Spring days. Johnny-jump-ups and shooting stars carpet meadows with drifts of bloom between footsteps of spring, buttercups, poppies and other wildflowers. Abundant rain this year has made the display more lavish than usual.

To make things even prettier, a county crew tidied up the roadside Tuesday. All those pieces of paper, cans, boxes and other debris which thoughtless persons toss from cars were picked up and carted away in the white truck decorated with the slogan, "Don't Be A Litterbug."

Young ladies, stationed outside the post office this week, asked passersby their opinion on the parking situation in Carmel. They were asked to do this by the Carmel Citizens Committee which hopes in this way to get the man-in-the-street angle on the problem about to be studied by the planning commission at the request of the city council.

April 1, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon on Channel 11, and 4:30 on Channel 7, Monterey Peninsula College will be the first junior college to be featured on an half-hour ABC program, and Dr. Eugene C. Haderlie, the first junior college instructor.

The program was filmed this month in three segments. They are the campus segment, the tidepool or Point Pinos segment, and the lecture or studio segment.

Cost of the filming was about $6,000. The program, to be shown coast-to-coast, is co-sponsored by the ABC-TV Network and the Association for Higher Education as a public service. Among its objectives are to show the college teacher and the vital work he does, with the rewards and satisfaction his teaching brings him.

Carmel students in the film will be Dathel DeMaris, Madge Holmes, Ann Barnard and Dennis Peavey.

Edward K. Barnes of Carmel Valley, Monterey County district attorney, Tuesday announced his resignation effective March 29.

On Monday the Board of Supervisors will interview prospective candidates for the $16,500 a year job left vacant until January, 1963, by Mr. Barnes' resignation, Burt Talcott, chairman of the board of supervisors, stated Tuesday.

Mr. Barnes plans to enter the private practice of law with Elwood J. Wilson of Carmel who maintains offices in Monterey.

The Monterey Peninsula Area Planning Commission will meet at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the Monte-

Del Monte Dedicates Additional Land To Existing Greenbelt

Richard Osborne, president of Del Monte Properties Company, announced today that 102 acres comprising the Del Monte Golf Course has been dedicated against any building, thus preserving the area for all time as a green belt.

This legal declaration is in addition to the several hundred acres of waterfront along the 17-Mile Drive, including the Pebble Beach Golf Links and the two courses at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, which the company dedicated several years ago.

The easement declaration and agreement was signed and recorded this week at the County Recorder's office of Monterey County.

A progress report on the preliminary plan for this area will be given. Simon Eisner, planning consultant, will be present.

A Superior Court trial date, April 16, was set last week for two Marina brothers, Joe and Sam Salazar, who have pleaded not guilty to kidnapping a Carmel girl on February 1. They are now serving a six-month term for assault as a result of the same incident.

The kidnapping complaint, was filed by Richard Buvia, father of Lynn Buvia, 18, who allegedly was abducted from a car. She was rescued by Carmel police in the parking lot at the foot of Ocean Avenue.

Dr. Everett T. Calvert of West Covina announced Monday he is a candidate for the office of State Superintendent of Schools. He received a Ph.D. degree in education from Yale University in 1942; a bachelor's from La Verne College in 1931. He attended Kern County High School. A native Californian, he was born in Inglewood in 1910.

Dr. Calvert has been both an elementary and high school teacher, also a lecturer at Yale University and the University of Southern California. He was principal of a Pasadena high school from 1938-52 and a supervisor in Kern County for three years. He is now a business executive.

At a news conference Monday, Dr. Calvert said, "There is no place in our educational system for isms of any kind — John Birchism as well as Communism."

His objective, he announced, will be to see that state school funds are administered on a sound basis — efficiently and economically — for the best interests of children, teachers and the instructional program.

Dr. Max Rafferty, La Canada superintendent of schools, announced his candidacy for the state superintendent's office on March 7.

Judge Russell Zaches was sworn into office last week and is now presiding on the bench of the Carmel-Monterey Municipal Court. He was appointed by Governor Edmund G. Brown to replace Judge Gordon Campbell of Carmel who now presides in the third Monterey County Superior Court.

Juvenile Thefts Again Local Police Problem

A 13-year-old implicated in some of the above activities, reportedly also removed articles from the Sport Shop, Sunset School, Browse Around Music Shop, Carmel Wine Shop. The police report states that some of the articles he acquired were "dumped into the river."

Another 13-year-old, involved with the above two, according to the police report, took a $50-$60 gold ring from a local home and pawned it for a small sum.

The 16 juveniles named in the police report, according to the investigating officer, Sergeant Bob Fisher, are "just a portion of what could be discovered."

He adds that petty theft has a tendency to extend to burglary in the group involved.

Police Chief Clyde Klaumann reported the offenders to the county probation officer, only procedure possible in juvenile offenses under the California code. The probation officer will decide what procedure to follow in the matter. "Gone are the days when Carmel police could talk to juvenile offenders and their parents in order to carry out effective corrective measures," Chief Klaumann observed this morning.

RED CROSS FUND DRIVE RETURNS TO DATE

The Red Cross Fund Drive has passed the half-way mark with total collections to date of $13,600 toward the goal of $28,000.

Residential district solicitors hope to complete their calls in the Carmel area this week. Arthur Birchfield reports he expects to have all of the business district covered and funds turned in within a few days.

Workers in Carmel Valley, Big Sur, Carmel Meadows, and other outlying areas have not reported, but are expected to do so this week.
